Assessment in light of Principles of Success, Completion and Failure 2024/2025

Prepared by:

Dr. Nesreen Mohammad Alja'afreh

THE COMMON EUROPEAN FRAMEWORK FOR LANGUAGES:

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: learning, teaching, assessment (CEFR) is a guideline published in 2001 by the Council of Europe which describes what language learners can do at different stages of their learning. In 2017, the CEFR Companion Volume with New Descriptors was published, which complements the original publication. The document enriches the existing list of descriptors and gives a lot of focus to cross-linguistic mediation and plurilingual/pluricultural competence. The term mediation is understood as mediating communication, a text and concepts. It combines reception, production and interaction and is a common part of everyday language use. It makes communication possible between people who, for whatever reason, are unable to communicate successfully with each other: they may speak different languages and require a translation, they may not have the same subject knowledge information and need an explanation or simplify cation, they may not be of the same opinion and need someone to identify common ground. Mediation can also involve written texts – with the reader summarizing, paraphrasing or interpreting the information for a different audience. Jordan High Note contains numerous mediation activities. They include open reading and listening comprehension tasks, transformation tasks, gapped summaries, rewriting texts in a different register, picture description, speculating or drawing conclusions. There are also tasks which cater for mediating concepts and communication such as communicative pair work or groupwork tasks, projects or problem-solving activities.

THE GLOBAL SCALE OF ENGLISH:

The Global Scale of English (GSE) is a standardized, granular scale that measures English language proficiency. Using the Global Scale of English, students and teachers can now answer three questions accurately: Exactly how good is my English? What progress have I made towards my learning goal? What do I need to do next if I want to improve? Unlike some other frameworks that measure English proficiency in broad bands, the Global Scale of English identifies what a learner can do at each point on a scale from 10 to 90, across each of the four skills (listening, reading, speaking and writing) as well as the enabling skills of vocabulary and grammar. This allows learners and teachers to understand a learner's exact level of proficiency, what progress they have made and what they need to learn next. The Global Scale of English is designed to motivate learners by making it easier to demonstrate granular progress in their language ability. Teachers can use their knowledge of their students' GSE levels to choose course materials that are precisely matched to ability and learning goals. The Global Scale of English serves as a standard against which English language courses and assessments worldwide can be benchmarked, offering a truly global and shared understanding of language proficiency levels. Visit www.english.com/gse for more information about the Global Scale of English

Assessment for learning:

With the GSE as the solid framework for syllabus design and assessment, Jordan High Note offers a uniquely sound and comprehensive Assessment for Learning package. Any test can be used either as an assessment of learning or an assessment for learning. Assessment of learning usually takes place after the learning has happened and provides information about what the student has achieved by giving them a mark or grade. You can also use tests as assessment for learning by providing specific feedback on students' strengths and weaknesses, and suggestions for improvement as part of the continual learning process. It is the combination of both types of assessment which can provide a powerful tool for helping your students' progress. Assessment for Learning is embedded throughout the Jordan High Note materials: in the Student's Book, Workbook, Digital Practice and Assessment Package

There are downloadable tests in A and B versions. The Assessment Package includes: • Placement test • Grammar quizzes • Vocabulary quizzes • Unit tests: — Vocabulary, Grammar, Use of English — Dictation, Listening, Reading and Communication — Writing • Cumulative review tests: Vocabulary, Grammar, Use of English • Exam Speaking tests Each test is provided in a Word format, so it can be easily modified if needed.
